IV. Application for units :—

- (1) Applications for units may be made by the following classes of persons :
 - (i) one individual or two individuals none of whom is a minor;
 - (ii) a parent, step-parent or other lawful guardian on behalf of a minor.
- (2) An application shall not be made jointly on behalf of a minor and another person. Applications in the names of two individuals can be either on joint basis or either or supervisor basis.
- (3) Applications shall be made in such form as may be approved by the Chairman of the Trust.
- (4) Application shall be for a multiple of 10 units subject to a minimum of 20 units and a maximum of 100 units.
- (5) No person shall apply for units under more than one application. In case a person makes multiple applications, the Trust shall accept only one of the applications which is for the highest number of units, the rest of the applications being rejected. Two or more applications in single and/or joint names will be deemed to be multiple applications, if the sole and/or first applicant is one and the same person. Further, if any time during the currency of the scheme, the Trust comes to know that a person is holding more than one unit certificates (originally issued in his name) under the scheme, the unit-holder will be allowed to hold only one unit certificate (the one for the highest number of units), and the rest of the unit certificates being repurchased by it at the face value. No interest will be paid for the excess amount/s invested in units. If any dividend has been paid in respect of such units, the Trust shall deduct the dividend so paid to the unit-holder from the repurchase value of units.
- (6) (i) The payment for the units applied for by an applicant shall be made by him along with the application in cash, cheques, draft or postal order. Cheques and drafts should be drawn on branches of banks within the city where the office at which the application is tendered is situated.
- (ii) If the payment is made by cheque, the acceptance date will, subject to such cheque being realised, be the date on which the cheque is received by the Trust or by a designated branches of authorised bank. If payment is made by draft or postal order, the acceptance date will, subject to such draft or postal order being realised, be the date of issue of such draft or postal order provided the application is received by the Trust or a designated branch of authorised bank within a reasonable time. If the amount tendered by way of payment for the units applied for is not sufficient to cover the amount payable for the units applied for, the applicant shall be issued such lower number of units as could be issued under the scheme, the balance due to him shall be refunded to him at his cost in such manner as the Trust may deem fit.

- (iii) A unit certificate will be sent by registered post with or without acknowledgement due to the address given by the applicant; and the Trust will not incur any liability for loss, damage, mis-delivery or non-delivery of the unit certificate, so sent.

V. Sale of units :—

The contract for sale of units by the Trust shall be deemed to have been concluded on the acceptance date. On such conclusion of the contract for sale, the Trust shall, as soon therefore as possible, issue to the applicant one unit certificate representing the units sold to him.

VI. Repurchase of units :—

- (1) The Trust shall not repurchase units before 1st July, 1984.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (1), the Trust may repurchase units on one or two occasions at the ruling repurchase price to the extent of 50% of the original holding of units of a unitholder. Fraction of a unit shall not be repurchased.
- However, in the event of the death of the unit-holder, all the units shall be repurchased by the Trust at the repurchase price ruling on the date on which all the formalities in connection with the claims have been complied with by the claimants.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of sub-clause (2), the Trust shall, on receipt by it of the unit certificate with the form on the reverse thereof duly completed, repurchase the units offered to it for repurchase. The certificates so received shall be returned by the Trust after making an endorsement thereon showing the units repurchased and the balance of units.
- (4) Payment for units repurchased by the Trust shall be made as early as possible after the acceptance date in such manner as the applicant may indicate in the application. No interest shall, on any account, be payable on the amount due to the applicant and the cost of remittance (including postage) or of realisation of cheque or draft sent by the Trust shall be borne by the applicant.

VII. Restrictions on sale and repurchase of units :—

Notwithstanding anything contained in any provision of the scheme, the Trust shall not be under an obligation to repurchase units—

- (i) on such days as are not working days; and
- (ii) during the period when the register of unitholders is closed in connection with (as notified by the Trust) the annual closing of the books and accounts.

Explanation : For the purposes of this scheme, the term "working day" shall mean a day which has not been either (i) notified under the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, to be a public holiday in the State of Maharashtra or such other States where the Trust has its offices; or (ii) notified by the Trust in the Gazette of India as a day on which the office of the Trust will be closed.

VIII. Sale or repurchase to be as on the acceptance date :—

Every sale or repurchase of units by the Trust shall be as on the acceptance date at the respective prices prevailing on that date.

IX. Sale and Repurchase prices :—

- (1) The units shall be sold at Rs. 100/- both in May and June 1982.
- (2) The price at which a unit will be repurchased by the Trust (hereinafter referred to as "the repurchase price") shall be determined by the Trust on 15th of every month (or, the next working day, if that day happens to be a holiday) and shall apply to repurchases in the succeeding month.
- (3) The repurchase price shall be arrived at by dividing the value (determined as hereinafter indicated) as at the close of business on the working day on which the repurchase price is determined, of the assets pertaining to this Scheme, reduced by liabilities pertaining to this Scheme not being contingent liabilities or liabilities in respect of the unit capital including reserves, if any) as at the close of business on the said working day, by the number of units in issue as at the close of business on the said day, deducting therefrom such sum as in the opinion of the Trust is adequate to cover brokerage, commission, taxes, if any, stamp duties and other charges in relation to the realisation of investments by the Trust and adjusting downwards the resulting price by no more than ten paise per unit.

- (4) The repurchase price of a unit shall be arrived at on the basis of the material available with the Trust on the day on which the repurchase price is arrived at.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary in sub-clause (2), (3) and (4), when the Trust is satisfied that in the interest of the Trust, the unit-holders and of the continuance and growth of the scheme, it is necessary or expedient to do so, the Trust may determine the repurchase price at a rate which may not necessarily be in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (3) and any such determination shall be deemed to be in the interest of the Trust and the unit-holders.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary in sub-clause (2), the Trust may determine the repurchase price on any date other than the 15th day of a month and may deem any price fixed by it effective for such period as it may deem fit.

X. Publication of repurchase price :—

The Trust shall, as early as possible after the determination of the repurchase price, publish in such manner as it may deem fit, the repurchase price of units.

XI. Valuation of assets pertaining to this Scheme :—

(1) For the purposes of valuation of the assets under sub-clause (3) of Clause IX, the assets shall be classified into : (a) cash, (b) investments, and (c) other assets.

(2) Investments shall be valued by taking :—

- A. (a) the closing prices on the stock exchange as on the working day on which the valuation is made of the securities held by the Trust pertaining to this Scheme; Provided where a security is quoted on more than one stock exchange, the manner of determination the price of such security shall be decided by the Trust;
- (b) where any investment was not, during the relevant period, dealt in, or quoted or any recognised stock exchange, such value, as the Trust may, in the circumstances, consider to be the fair value of such investment; and
- B. adding thereto—
 - (a) in the case of interest earning deposits, interest accrued but not received;
 - (b) in the case of Government securities and debentures interest accrued but not received; and
 - (c) in the case of preference shares and equity shares quoted ex-dividend, any dividend declared but not received.

(3) Other assets shall be valued at their book value.

XII. Form of unit certificate :—

Unit certificates shall be in Form A annexed hereto. Each unit certificate shall bear a distinctive number, the number of units represented by the certificate and the name of the unit holder.

XIII. Manner of preparation of unit certificate :—

The unit certificates may be engraved or lithographed or printed as the Board may, from time to time, determine and shall be signed on behalf of the Trust by two persons duly authorised by the Trust. Every such signature may either be autographic or may be effected by a mechanical method. No unit certificate shall be valid unless and until it is so signed. Unit certificates so signed shall be valid and binding notwithstanding that, before the issue thereof, any person whose signature appears thereon, may have ceased to be a person authorised to sign unit certificates on behalf of the Trust. Provided that should the unit certificate so prepared contain the signature of an authorised person who however is dead at the time of issue of the certificate, the Trust may by a method considered by it as most suitable, cancel the signature of such a person appearing on the certificate and have the signature of any other authorised person affixed to it. The unit certificate so issued shall also be valid.

XIV. Trusts not to be recognised regarding unit certificates :—

The person who is registered as the holder and in whose name a unit certificate has been issued shall be the only person to be recognised by the Trust as the unit-holder and as having any right, title or interest in or to such unit certificate and the units which it represents; and the Trust may recognise such unit holder as absolute owner thereof and shall not be bound by any notice to the contrary or to take notice of the execution or any trust or, save as herein expressly provided or as by some court of competent jurisdiction ordered, to recognise any trust or equity or other interest affecting the title to any unit certificate or the units thereby represented.

XV. Exchange of unit certificates and procedure when certificate is mutilated, defaced, lost, etc.,

(1) In case any unit certificate shall be mutilated or worn or defaced, the Trust in its discretion, may issue to the person entitled a new unit certificate representing the same aggregate number of units as the mutilated or worn or defaced unit certificate. In case any unit certificate should be lost, stolen or destroyed, the Trust may, in its discretion, issue to the person entitled a new unit certificate in lieu thereof. No such new unit shall be issued unless the applicant shall previously have

- (i) furnished to the Trust evidence satisfactory to it of the mutilation, wearing out, defacement, loss, theft or destruction of the original unit certificate;
- (ii) paid all expenses in connection with the investigation of the facts;
- (iii) (in case mutilation or wearing out or defacement) produced and surrendered to the Trust the mutilated or worn out or defaced unit certificate; and
- (iv) furnished to the Trust such indemnity as it may require.

The Trust shall not incur any liability for issuing such certificate in good faith under the provisions of this clause.

(2) Before issuing any certificate under the provisions of this clause, the Trust may require the applicant for the unit certificate to pay a fee of Rupee one per unit certificate issued by it together with a sum sufficient in the opinion of the Trust to cover stamp duty, if any, or other charges or taxes including postal registration charges that may be payable in connection with the issue and despatch of such certificate.

XVI. Register of unit-holders :—

The following provisions shall have effect with regard to the registration of unit-holders :—

- (1) A register of the unit-holders shall be kept by the Trust at its Head Office and there shall be entered in the register :
 - (a) the names and addresses of the unit-holders;
 - (b) the distinctive number of the unit certificate and the number of units held by every such person; and
 - (c) the date on which such person became the holder of the units standing in his name.

- (2) (a) If a unit certificate stands registered in the names of two persons, such persons shall be deemed to hold the unit certificate jointly and a discharge by the person first named in the register of the unit holders shall, as regards receipt of amounts due in respect of such units, discharge the Trust in respect of such amounts.

- (b) Where two individuals, none of them being a minor, apply for issue of a unit certificate in their favour and request in the application that either of them should be permitted to deal with the units, the Trust shall record in its books suitable entries to take note of such request; and when a unit certificate has been issued in such circumstances, then either of the holders shall be entitled to deal with the units represented by such certificate, and a discharge by either of such persons shall, as regards receipt of amounts due in respect of such units, discharge the Trust in respect of such amounts.

Provided that the income distribution declared in respect of the units represented by such certificates shall be paid to the person first named in the register of unitholders.

- (3) Any change of name or address on the part of any unitholder shall be notified to the Trust, which, on being satisfied of such change and on compliance with such formalities as it may require, shall after the register accordingly.
- (4) Except when the register is closed in accordance with the provisions in that behalf hereinafter contained, the register shall during business hours (subject to such reasonable restrictions as the Trust may impose but so that not less than two hours on each business day shall be allowed for inspection) be open to inspection by any unitholder without charge.
- (5) The register will be closed at such times and for such periods as the Trust may from time to time determine provided that it shall not be closed for more than 30 days in any one year; the Trust shall give notice of such closure by advertisement in such newspapers as the Board may direct.
- (6) No notice of any trust express, implied or constructive shall be entered on the register in respect of any unit.

XVII. Receipt by unitholder to discharge Trust :—

The receipt of the unitholder for any moneys paid to him in respect of the units represented by the certificate shall be a good discharge to the Trust.

XVIII. Death or bankruptcy of a unitholder :—

- (1) In case of death of either of the joint holders of a unit certificate, the survivor shall be the only person recognised by the Trust as having title to or interest in the units represented by the unit certificate. Provided that nothing herein contained shall effect any right which any other person may have as against such survivor in respect of the said units.
- (2) In the event of death of a single holder, the nominee shall be the person recognised by the Trust as the person entitled to the amount payable by the Trust in respect of units under the Regulations.
- (3) In the absence of a valid nomination by a single unitholder, the executor or administrators of the deceased unitholder or a holder of succession certificate issued under Part X of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 (39 of 1925) shall be the only persons who may be recognised by the Trust as having any title to the unit.
- (4) Any person becoming entitled to a unit in consequence to the death or bankruptcy of a unitholder may, upon producing such evidence as to his title as the Trust shall consider sufficient, be paid the repurchase value of all units to the credit of the deceased at the repurchase price ruling on the date on which all the formalities in connection with the claim have been complied with by the claimant.

XIX. Application on behalf of minors :—

- (1) An adult individual being a parent, step-parent or other lawful guardian of a minor may apply for the units and deal with them in accordance with and to the extent provided in sub-section (2A) of Section 21 of the Act and in this scheme.
- (2) Such adult while applying for units shall furnish to the Trust in such manner as may be specified, proof of age of the minor and the capacity to hold and deal with units on behalf of the minor.

Provided that the Trust shall be entitled to act on the statements made by such adult in the application form without any further proof.

XX. Transfer of units :—

No transfer of units issued under this scheme shall be permissible.

XXI. Nomination by unitholders and agents :—

Unitholders and agents may exercise the right to make or cancel a nomination to the extent provided in the Regulations.

XXII. Investment limits :—

- (1) Investments by the Trust from the funds of the scheme in the securities of any one company shall not exceed 15% of the securities issued and outstanding of such companies.

Provided that the aggregate of such investments in the capital initially issued by new industrial undertakings shall not at any time exceed 5% of the total amount of the said funds.

- (2) The limits prescribed under sub-clause (1) shall not apply to investments of the Trust in bonds and debentures of a company whether secured or not.

XXIII. Income distribution :—

- (1) The Trust shall pay dividend to the unitholders at the following rates :—

Year (July—June)	Rate
1981-82	12.00% (on a prorata basis)
1982-83	12.00%
1983-84	12.50%
1984-85	12.50%
1985-86	13.00%
1986-87	13.00%

- (2) Dividend shall be payable every half year ending 31st December and 30th June to those whose names stood on the register of unitholder as on the above dates. The income distributable shall be paid as soon as may be after the expiry of the relevant half year.

- (3) Dividend for 1981-82 shall be paid along with the dividend for the half-year ending 31st December, 1982. For 1981-82, unitholders buying units in May 1982, shall be eligible for dividend for two months and those buying in June 1982 will be eligible for dividend for one month.

- (4) No interest shall be payable by the Trust on such income distributable among the unitholders.

- (5) The income distributable among unitholders shall be paid by means of a warrant payable at par at a branch of a specified bank.

XXIV. Publication of accounts :—

The Trust shall as soon as may be after the 30th June of then year cause to be published in such manner as the Board may decide, accounts in the manner specified by the Board, showing the working of the scheme during the period ending on the 30th June. The Trust shall, on a request in writing received from a unitholder, furnish him a copy of the accounts so published.

XXV. Additions and amendments to scheme :—

The Board may from time to time add to or otherwise amend this scheme and any amendment thereof will be notified in the Official Gazette.

XXVI. Termination of the scheme :—

The scheme shall stand terminated as on 1st July, 1987. All the unitholders of the scheme at that time shall be paid the value of their units at the repurchase price fixed for the above date. Thereafter, no further benefit, whether by way of increase in the repurchase value or by way of dividend for any period subsequent to 30th June, 1987, shall accrue to them. The repurchase value will be paid by the Trust as early as possible after the unit certificate with the form on the reverse thereof duly completed has been received by it. The unit certificate shall be retained by the Trust for cancellation.

XXVII. Scheme to be binding on unitholders :—

The terms of this scheme, including any amendments thereof from time to time, shall be binding on each unitholder and every other person claiming through him as if he had expressly agreed that they should be so binding.

XXVIII. Copy of scheme to be made available :—

A copy of this scheme incorporating all amendments thereto shall be made available for inspection at the offices of the Trust at all times during its business hours and may be supplied by the Trust to any person on application.

the thesis has been submitted to other University as well but that thesis is not substantially the same as now being submitted to this University; and

2. The thesis submitted by the candidate is the work of his own and is not on the basis of which the Ph.D. degree has already been awarded by any University.

11.4 The thesis shall comply with the following conditions:

(i) the greater portion of the work submitted therein must have been done subsequent to his passing the qualifying examination; and

(ii) the work must contain some material contribution to knowledge and afford evidence of originality shown by the discovery of new facts, or by the exercise of independence and critical power.

12. If a candidate fails to submit his thesis within the prescribed period including the extensions granted, his enrolment shall be cancelled. However, delays up to 3 months in the submission of the thesis beyond the prescribed/extended period may be condoned by the Dean, Faculty of Business Management and Commerce.

13. No conjoint research with the supervisor shall be permitted in regard to the subject-matter of the thesis. The thesis must consist of candidate's own work which must be his personal achievement, provided, however, that a candidate may submit, as subsidiary matter in support of his thesis any printed contribution for the advancement of his subject which may be published independently or conjointly. Where such subsidiary matter is submitted, a candidate shall indicate specifically his personal contribution to such conjoint work duly attested by the supervisor.

14. Every candidate shall give an undertaking that he will not publish his thesis without the previous permission of the Syndicate. If this permission is granted, the candidate shall acknowledge in the publication that the thesis as published was submitted partly or wholly to the University for the Ph.D. degree and shall also supply to the Registrar three copies of the published thesis; one copy to be placed in the University department concerned and two copies in the University Library. The candidate will also furnish the University with copies of reviews of his publication which, along with the book shall be brought to the notice of the Syndicate.

15.1. The thesis shall be referred to three examiners appointed by the Syndicate on the recommendation of the Research Board in Business Management and Commerce and the Vice-Chancellor. The examiners may recommend—that the thesis be accepted for the award of Ph.D. degree;

or

that the thesis be rejected;

or

that the thesis be allowed to be resubmitted with improvement and for this purpose may make such suggestions as they may deem fit. Provided that the candidate shall ordinarily resubmit the revised thesis after six months unless he is permitted to re-submit earlier in pursuance of the suggestions made by the examiners.

15.2 If at least two out of three examiners agree that the thesis be accepted for the award of Ph.D. degree, the candidate shall be called for viva voce examination.

15.3 In case only one examiner recommends the acceptance of the thesis and one or both the remaining examiners recommend the revision of the thesis, the thesis shall be revised.

16. Viva voce shall be held in accordance with the rules prescribed in this behalf by the Syndicate, before a final decision on the thesis. The examiners must send along with their reports questions for use by the Board of examiners conducting the oral examination. Such a Board shall consist of (a) Chairman of the Department; (b) Supervisor/supervisors (in case of joint supervision); and (c) an external examiner to be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor/Syndicate.

17. The examiners shall indicate in their report whether :—

the thesis is fit for publication by the candidate in its original or modified form. In the latter case, they may make definite suggestions for improvement;

or

the thesis is of such an outstanding merit that the University should undertake its publication at its own cost.

18. A thesis shall be resubmitted, if so recommended by the examiners, only once, and it shall be examined by the examiner/s who assessed the original thesis and did not originally recommend it for the award of the degree unless both or any of them are unable or unwilling to do so.

19. A revised thesis must be resubmitted by the candidate not earlier than six months but within one year from the date of intimation of the decision of the University to him. The revised thesis shall reach the University accompanied by half the amount of fee prescribed in Regulation 11.1 on one of the following dates whichever falls immediately next to the expiry of the time allowed herein :

First term .. July 31

Second term .. October 31

Third term .. January 15

20. The reports of both the examiners on the thesis as well as of the other examiners for the viva-voce shall be considered by the Syndicate. The Syndicate may decide,

(i) whether the degree be awarded to the candidate;

(ii) whether the thesis is fit for publication by the candidate in its original form or in any modified form;

(iii) whether the thesis is of such outstanding merit that the University would be justified in publishing it at its own cost;

(iv) whether the thesis be rejected; and

(v) whether the candidate be allowed to resubmit the thesis after revision.

21. The Registrar shall notify the result in accordance with the decision of the Syndicate.

22. A person already registered for the Ph.D. degree, before these regulations come into force, shall, if he so desires to continue to be governed by the regulations which were in force at the time of registration. The thesis will be entertained under old regulations only if this option has been exercised earlier.
